1 Company Background

1.1 About Maruti Suzuki

Maruti Suzuki India Limited, established in 1981, is a leading automobile manufacturer known for its affordability and reliability. Since the launch of the Maruti 800 in 1983, it has revolutionized driving in India with innovative models and technologies, transforming the automotive retail landscape through NEXA, Maruti Suzuki Arena, and True Value.

1.2 About Maruti Suzuki Digital Enterprise

Digital Enterprise (DE) leverages digital technologies to enhance business operations and customer experience with a strong focus on digital transformation. At DE, we manage a diverse portfolio of projects, and we are looking to develop a robust digital tool to support our project management needs.

2 Background

Maruti Suzuki Digital Enterprise intends to build an Enterprise Project Management Platform to standardize and digitize project governance, reporting, and portfolio tracking within the DE vertical. The platform aims to ensure visibility, traceability, alignment with strategic KPIs, and seamless stakeholder collaboration. By centralizing project data and workflows, the tool will streamline governance, enhance visibility, optimize resource allocation, and support timely delivery of project milestones.

3 Objective

The objective of this RFQ is to invite qualified Bidders to submit quotations for the Discovery and Design phase of the Enterprise Project Management Platform. This phase will establish the functional and technical foundation for subsequent development and implementation.

4 Project Requirements

- Centralized project management for all projects.
- Comprehensive task management and tracking.
- Timeline and Milestone Tracking
- Resource and manpower management
- Budget tracking and financial management.
- Real-time collaboration and communication tools.
- Integration with existing systems (JIRA, Demand creation tool, Power tools, SAP, etc.) and tracking of licenses
- Compliance with IT security policies.
- Risk and Issue Management
- Tracking KPIs (Various KPIs based on type of projects)

  - Governance framework encompassing Waterfall, Agile, and Nanban project methodologies.
  - Software development projects (Project specific KPIs)
  - Non software development projects (project specific KPIs)
- Bidder Performance Tracking
- Persona wise Dashboards like Project Manager, Program Manager, Department Head, Divisional Head and Executive Officer.
- AI capabilities for various aspects of Project Management

Please note that a few requirements might get added or changed as per the proposal received and further discussion.

Also, please don't restrict your research to only above-mentioned points, proposal must include industry best practices, future opportunities and technologies like AI.

5 Scope of Work

5.1 Objectives

- Understand the existing project management processes and pain points.
- Co-design the future-state architecture of the Enterprise Project Management Platform.
- Deliver a comprehensive product blueprint to inform development in Phase 2.

5.2 Activities and Deliverables

Activity	Expected Deliverables

13 RFQ Process

13.1 Bidder/Respondent Understanding of the RFQ

In responding to this RFQ, the Bidder accepts full responsibility to understand the RFQ in its entirety, and in detail, including making any inquiries to MSIL, as necessary, to gain such an understanding.

MSIL has absolute discretion to determine whether any Bidder has demonstrated such an understanding. Such disqualification and/or cancellation shall be at no fault, cost, or liability whatsoever to MSIL.

Bidder responses that do not contain sufficient information to permit proper evaluation to be conducted, or in the case of electronic responses, which cannot be effectively evaluated, because the file has become corrupt, may be excluded from the evaluation process without further consideration.

13.2 Good Faith Statement

The information provided by MSIL in this RFQ is offered in good faith. Individual items are subject to change at any time. MSIL makes no certification that any item is without error. MSIL is not responsible or liable for any use of the information or for any claims asserted therefrom.

13.3 Communication

Verbal communication shall not be effective unless formally confirmed in writing by the specified MSIL contact official in charge of managing this RFQ process. In no case shall verbal communication prevail over written communication.

13.4 Formal Communications

Any Bidder/Respondent requiring any clarifications on the RFQ document may submit its queries by email to the contact persons.

The formal communications process is as follows:

a. Queries concerning this RFQ must be submitted in writing by email and be received prior to the closing date pertaining to such queries.
b. Bidders shall notify MSIL of any discrepancies, errors, or omissions that may exist within this RFQ.
c. Bidders shall recommend to MSIL any enhancements, which might be in MSIL's best interests. These must be submitted in writing by email and be received prior to the closing date pertaining to such queries.
d. Where clarification given to one respondent enhances the information provided in this RFQ, the information may be included in an addendum to inform all other respondents.

13.5 Amendment of RFQ Document

- At any time prior to receipt of the response, MSIL may, for any reason, whether at its own initiative or in response to a clarification requested by a Bidder, modify the RFQ document by an amendment.
- The amendment will be notified by e-mail to all prospective Bidders who have received the RFQ document and will be binding on them.
- In order to provide prospective Bidders with reasonable time in which to take the amendment into account in preparing their response, MSIL may, at its discretion, extend the last date for the receipt of the response.
- MSIL may at any time during the selection process request the Bidders to submit a revised response without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Party or Parties.

13.6 Submission of Responses to the RFQ

Electronic submissions must be made using the MSIL SAP ARIBA system.

All responses must observe the following format:

- Submission requires duly filled Bidder deliverables listed in section 5 of this RFQ.
- Submissions must be lodged in a Portable Document Format (PDF).

Electronically submitted responses may be made corrupt or incomplete – for example, by computer viruses. MSIL may decline to consider a response that cannot be effectively evaluated, because it is incomplete or corrupt. Note that:

- To reduce the likelihood of viruses, a respondent/Bidder must not include any macros, applets, or executable code or files in its response.
- A respondent should ensure that electronically submitted files are free from viruses by checking the files with an up-to-date, virus-checking program before submission.

Respondents should ensure that response lodgment is made as soon as possible in the period leading up to the RFQ's close date.

If a Bidder provides multiple lodgments, the latest response received (on or before the RFQ close date) will be the response to be evaluated unless the respondent provides clear directions as to whether the lodgment is a second response, supporting information, or a further part of a previous lodgment.

Where a respondent has problems sending a response to MSIL or has failed to receive a receipt-confirming lodgment, due to a failure at MSIL, the MSIL nominated Contact Officer should be contacted before the RFQ closing.

13.7 Late Responses

It is the responsibility of the respondent to ensure that their response has been received within the time frame outlined in this RFQ. To ensure fair and equal treatment of all Bidders, responses that are received late or are incomplete may not be evaluated.

MSIL will not penalize any respondent whose response is received late, if the delay is due solely to mishandling by MSIL. Acceptance or non-acceptance of a late response for evaluation will be at the sole discretion of MSIL. The evaluation team will ensure that the integrity and competitiveness of the evaluation process is not compromised when making a decision in this regard.

13.8 Ownership of Responses

All information submitted in response to RFQ shall become the property of MSIL. All such material shall only be disclosed for the purposes of evaluation or as required by law or government policy. MSIL may make copies of the responses for any purpose related to the evaluation of the RFQ.

By responding to this RFQ, the Bidder agrees that it will not claim, in any way whatsoever, the unauthorized or unnotified use of the information shared as a response to this RFQ.

13.9 Extensions

The RFQ invitation period is set to provide sufficient time for suppliers to consider and respond to MSIL requirements.

Extensions will not occur unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Determination of requests for extension by suppliers will take account of both the particular circumstances and the timeliness of the request.

13.10 Evaluation of RFQ Responses

Bidders are advised to provide concise responses to all the information requirements listed in this document.

Information provided by the respondents will be assessed against the internally weighted priority that MSIL has assigned to each selection criteria.

13.11 Clarification of Response

During the evaluation phase, a respondent may be contacted by an officer of the evaluation committee to clarify details of the response.

If interviews or formal presentations are required, these may be arranged at the premises of MSIL.

13.12 Outcomes

MSIL is not bound to enter into a contracting arrangement with any respondent.

MSIL reserves the right to discontinue the procurement process at any point, without making a determination regarding the invitation of expressions of interest from one or more respondents.

MSIL will not be liable for any losses suffered by a respondent as a result of the discontinuation of the procurement process, including the costs of responding.

13.13 Disclosure of Information by Respondent

No potential respondent shall disclose any information relating to this RFQ process or the required services via any media release or any other publication without the prior written consent of MSIL.

MSIL has no objection to the potential registrant copying the RFQ document only for internal working purposes in preparing the response.

13.14 Disclaimer

MSIL is not committed contractually in any way to those individuals, partnerships or organizations whose responses are accepted. The issue of this invitation for RFQ does not commit or otherwise oblige MSIL to proceed with any part or steps of the process.

Although the information contained in this invitation for RFQ has been formulated with all due care, MSIL does not warrant or represent that the information is free from errors or omissions. The information is made available on the understanding that MSIL and its respective staff and agents shall have no liability (including liability by reason of negligence) for any loss, damage, cost or expense incurred or arising by reason of any person using or relying on the information and whether caused by reason of any error, omission or misrepresentation in the information or otherwise.

Furthermore, MSIL takes no responsibility for the accuracy, currency, reliability and correctness of any information included in this RFQ.

Printed terms and conditions (General Conditions) of the Bidders will not be considered as forming part of their responses. In case, terms and conditions mentioned in this RFQ document are not acceptable to any Bidder, it should clearly specify the deviations as part of a separate section in its response. Similarly, in case the systems and services being offered have deviations from the indicative requirements/minimum specifications as laid down in this RFQ, the Bidder shall describe in what respects and to what extent the system and services being offered differ/deviate from the requirements/specifications, even though the deviations may not be very material.

13.15 Notification of Shortlisted Respondents

No respondent shall be deemed to have been shortlisted until the respondent has been notified of such by MSIL in writing.

13.16 MSIL's Right to Vary Scope of Contract at the time of Award

- MSIL may at any time, by a written order given to the Party, make changes within the quantities, specifications, services or scope of the Contract as specified.
- MSIL reserves the right to negotiate the commercials with the selected Party and seek a revised response.
- If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for the Party's performance of any part of the work under the Contract, whether changed or not changed by the order, an equitable adjustment shall be made in the Contract Price or time schedule, or both, and the Contract shall accordingly be amended. Any claims by the Party for adjustment under this Clause must be asserted within thirty (30) days from the date of the Party's receipt of MSIL's changed order.

14 Instructions for RFQ Response

Bidders to share all meaningful information to showcase their relevant capabilities to realize the objective of RFQ. Technical and Commercial proposals must be submitted separately in their respective sections within SAP Ariba Platform.

Instructions for response document submission:

S. No.	Document	File format	Submission mode
1	Technical Proposal	PDF	Through SAP Ariba
2	Commercial Proposal	PDF	Through SAP Ariba
